The Pride of His Clars.

He was a bright, handsome boy of sixteen, sunny tempered, prilling and engaging, the delight of his parents, the loy of his home, and the prede of his class. But a shadow fell across his bright prespects. It began with a trilling cough; soon came promonitions of consumption, his strength falled, his cheeks grew hollow, and he seemed doomed to an early grave. Then a friend advised Dr. Pierce's Golden Modical Discovery. He tried it and was saved, Health and strength returned, his cheerful voice rang out again across the school playground, his cheeks again grew rosy, his eyes bright. He is still "the pride of his class" and he graduates this year with highest honors.
